

Redline: A New One-Stop Marketing Shop

A new marketing and graphic design company has just opened in Nueva Andalucía, specialising in a quick and efficient turnover of work and reducing the stress of starting up a business. Redline's graphic designers and writers liaise with web designers, professional photographers and printers, providing the complete range of marketing solutions for any type of business. They work closely with clients to produce the right corporate image for a company, from designing a suitable logo, to shop and window signs, writing and designing leaflets and brochures, business cards, etc. Redline can also help promote the client's company, services or products, advising on advertising campaigns and writing press releases. The whole package is provided for both existing and new businesses along the Costa del Sol. www.redlinecompany.com/ or to arrange to see the Redline portfolio, Tel: 617 952 249 /600 659 063.
