ROUND-UP OF BUSINESS, CHARITY, CULTURAL AND OTHER GENERAL NEWS FROM THE COSTA DEL SOL AND ELSEWHERE IN SPAIN

REDLINE COMPANY FIFTH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

Originally established in 2004 as a graphic design and marketing company, Redline – which celebrated its fifth birthday in November – has now expanded its operations to include merchandising, business coaching, external marketing, SEO, press agency, web programming, secretarial services, copywriting and photography. As someone familiar with the workings of the Spanish market, Redline director Line Lyster notes, "A lot of the companies establishing themselves on the Costa del Sol seem to forget the most obvious and staple market here – the Spanish market. Redline Company has many Spanish clients and sees it as very important not to ignore the fact that, even though the Costa del Sol has a high percentage of expats, there is still an important market in the Spanish population. We want to help bridge that gap for you." More information: Tel. 952 816 678; www.redlinecompany.com

VILLA DEL MAR BEAUTIFUL SURROUNDINGS AT MARBELLA CLUB

Anyone looking for somewhere to celebrate weddings or other special occasions, or hold an event, can find what they are seeking in the elegance of Villa del Mar at the Marbella Club. Rather like a "club within a club", this private and exquisite spot is a perfect blend of the most refined and subtle details of Moorish and Spanish beauty. Located by the sea, the lavish mansion is the ideal place to celebrate anything from a party to a wedding, where the bride and groom can enjoy an unforgettable occasion in the magic of the villa and its gardens overlooking the Mediterranean. More information: Tel. 952 822 211; www.marbellaclub.com

TEATRO CERVANTES WIDE VARIETY OF CULTURAL EVENTS

Málaga's Cervantes Theatre has a full schedule of shows – dance, theatre and music – for the autumn-winter season. The programme began last month with Mamma Mia! (the Spanish version) and a performance by the Nacional de Danza company, choreographed by Nacho Duarte, and continues through to Christmas with shows by pop singer Monica Naranjo (10 December) and veteran singer-songwriter Victor Manuel (12 December). The Cervantes programme is also now complemented by a variety of cultural events at the newly renovated and re-opened Echegaray Theatre. More information: www.teatrocervantes.es www.teatroechegaray.es
